

COMMUNITY FORMATION

Carey "Competitive-Fun" Day

This Tuesday is our annual community morning of fun and competition! Come along at 10:45am for morning tea and then take part in some team based events such as Volleyball, charades, darts and round the world Table Tennis. We will conclude our competitive fun with a lunch time quiz! Prizes up for grabs. See you there!

Wednesday Prayer

Join Neroli Hollis, Academic Registrar Extraordinaire and chocolate giver as she leads us in a time of praying for One-another. Chapel at 12.40pm. All are welcome.

ZUU TRAINING

ZUU is a fun way to get fit through body movement exercises and it is open for all people and fitness levels. If you would like to join us, the group meets on Weds and Thurs 1pm-1:30pm in the back car park. Talk to Andrew Picard for more details.

They are there to represent you so don't be shy in saying hello!

Kia Ora whanau,

I've been thinking about the Maori word "awhi". Awhi (according to my sources), can be used as either a verb or a noun. As a verb awhi can mean: aid, embrace, cherish; help, to surround, to brood (sit on) or to besiege. As a noun awhi means: embrace, adopt, siege or border

Whenever the word awhi has been addressed to me—I have felt: being encouraged, welcomed and embraced. And certainly that is how I felt as you all responded to my invitation to siva Samoa with me in chapel on Tuesday. Whether you stood, or came and danced up front or in the aisles—I felt ... awhi. I am really encouraged at how you embraced something different, a little awkward and very new. I will cherish that.

This is week 4, I hope as you look around and notice people who are a little different, a bit awkward or new, or may be struggling ... that your response will be awhi one another too.

Noho ora mai,
