FAREWELL TO GROUNSPERSON EXTRAORDINARE – JOHN LUCAS!

After 7 years of faithfully serving the Carey community and keeping our grounds and facilities looking beautiful John Lucas is leaving us. John is moving to Taupo to be with his lovely wife Chris.

We will miss his pastoral heart, kindness, patience and diligence. Thank you John! Many blessings for your future.

Last week Charles mentioned a prayer that here at Carey we hope that one of our students might be the next William Wilberforce, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Mother Teresa, or Billy Graham... If you heard the Pip Rea interview last Tuesday (with Charles), or the one on Saturday Morning with Kim Hill you might have thought our prayers have been answered.

How lucky are we to be following in Pip's footsteps (she is a Carey graduate)—we heard something of her love for Jesus, the Bible, the Gospel, the Church, and of mission.

Royal Oak (where I live) isn't exactly Sonagachi, but how am I seeing my local area through God's eyes? Who are the people I'm helping with their debt? Who am I building trust with? Who's story am I listening to? Who am I valuing? How is my life messier because of my involvement with others? What healing in Christ am I seeing in my neighbourhood? Are there Christians in my neighbourhood I could be helping in their leadership development?

Thank you, Pip, for the inspiration! God, please bless Pip and those she serve.
