WORD & WORLD Preaching Seminar

Wish you could preach as well as Andrew Picard in Chapel?

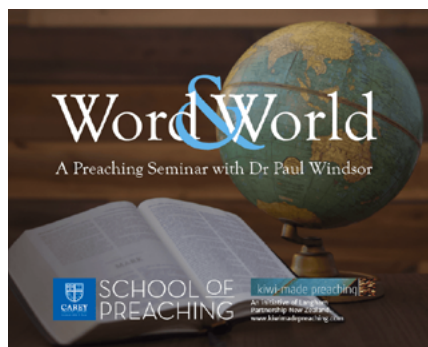

Are you a budding Preacher or been preaching for a while but need a fresh shot in the arm?

These preaching seminars will sharpen your ability to open up Scripture and culture, word and world.

Our guest speaker is Dr Paul Windsor.

Paul is the International Programme Director for Langham Preaching and Lecturer in Homiletics at a graduate school in South Asia. He also used to be the Principal of Carey before Charles Hewlett. He was also one of the founders of Kiwimade Preaching.

Easter is as Hard as Nails

In his book Thank God it's Friday, William Willimon reminds us that Easter is as hard as nails. Often when we suffer injustices or perceive the world to be unfair, we want God to stand up and act like a proper God. Grace is fine to a point, but in the real world the meek aren't blessed; the meek get to taste the tread of everyone else's jandals. In the real world, evil doers need to be taught a lesson. If God won't stand up and act like a proper God then we'll just have to do it for him. So we tax them, or bomb them, or ban them, or punish them. "It'll teach them a lesson."

Willimon reminds us that at Easter, when we had done our worst, Christ looked down from his bloody cross where we had nailed him and with his last breath he worked his justice, saying, "Father forgive 'em. It'll teach them a lesson." Easter is as hard as nails.
